IMAGINE

INVEST

INSPIRE

"As a teacher, when someone invests into an idea you are passionate about it sends the message that what you're doing matters. Being entrusted with funds to spearhead ideas that enrich and inspire students builds trust with the community and makes you feel supported. As curriculum fidelity becomes more important, having some wiggle room to enhance what is being taught is a way educators can ignite a spark in students."

ANDREA HANSEN, 4th GRADE TEACHER, ROYAL OAKS
